

Let's Chat

Luke Bryan

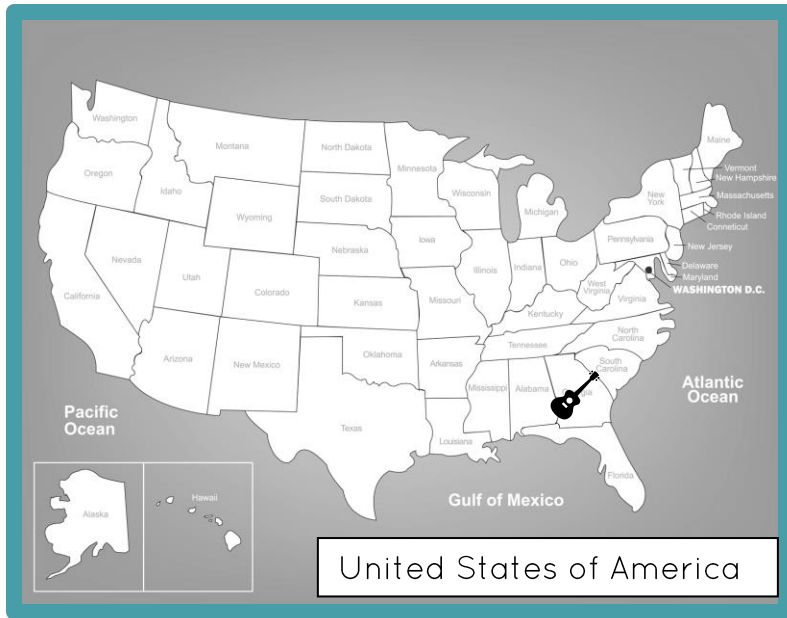

Debby Wong Shutterstock.com

By Janet Giel-Romo, Ed.D.

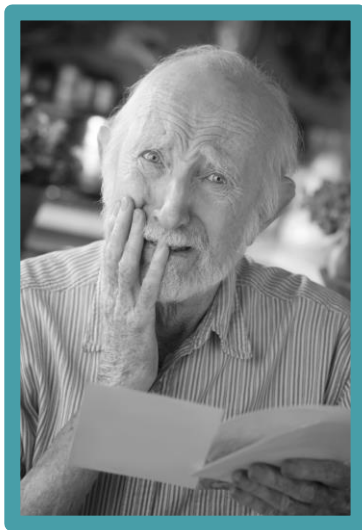

Copyright 2015 All Rights Reserved
Austin and Lily Solutions
Photo credit: Shutterstock license.
www.austinlily.com

Luke Bryan is an American country singer. He was born in Leesburg, Georgia. Where is Georgia? Which state do you live in? Are you American? What does 'American' mean?

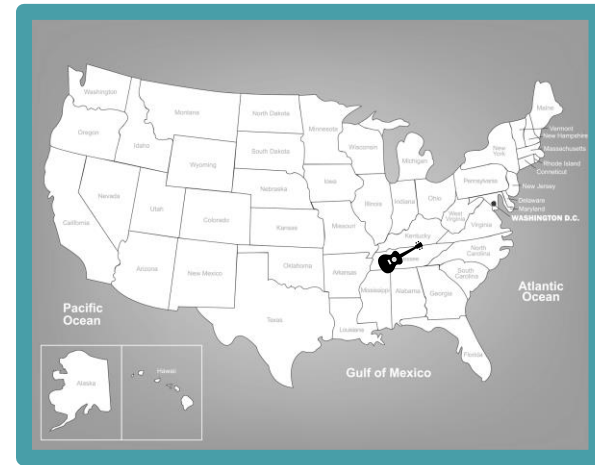

Luke's father was a peanut farmer. Some people are allergic to peanuts. What does 'allergic' mean? What are some other things people are allergic to?

Luke had a brother named Chris. He was killed in a car accident. Luke's family was very sad. People sent sympathy cards. What is a sympathy card? Why do people send them?

Luke got his first guitar as a gift when he was 14. That is when he started to learn how to play. What are some gifts that have been given to you?

Crash My Party
Kick the Dust Up
Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye

f11photo / Shutterstock.com

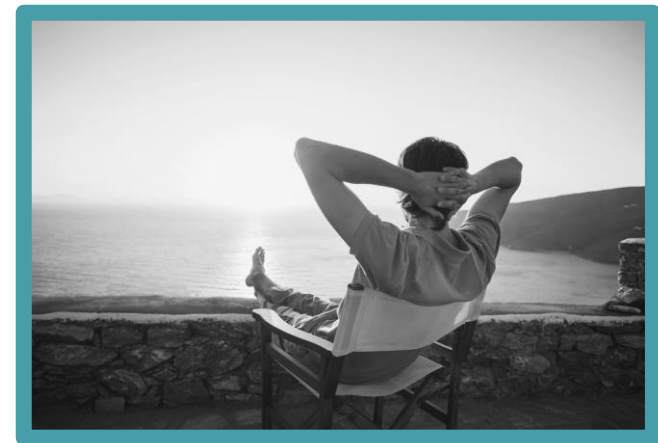

Luke is also a songwriter. He writes songs about a lot of things. The words in a song are called the lyrics. Do you know the lyrics to any songs?

Luke moved to Nashville, Tennessee. He wanted to live in a city where country music was popular. Do you know of any other country singers?

Debby Wong Shutterstock.com

Luke used to hold concerts on the beach in Florida. They were called spring break concerts. What is spring break? Where would you like to go on spring break? What would you do there?

One song Luke wrote is about hunting, fishing, and loving every day. What is hunting? What is fishing? What do you think 'loving every day' means?

Noah is a middle school student in Wisconsin. He loves to listen to Luke Bryan's music. Noah is a big fan of Luke Bryan. What is a fan? Are you a fan?

Copyright 2015 All Rights Reserved
Austin and Lily Solutions
www.austinLily.com