

Exceptional News

Teachers on Strike

By Janet Giel-Romo, Ed.D.

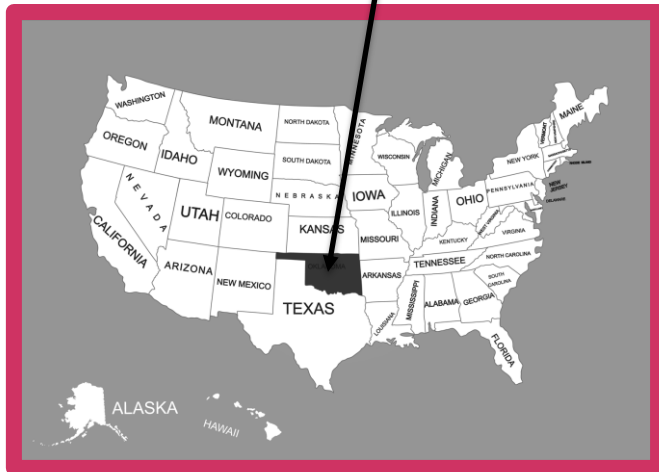

Copyright 2018 All Rights Reserved
Austin and Lily Solutions
Photo credit: Shutterstock license.
www.austinelily.com

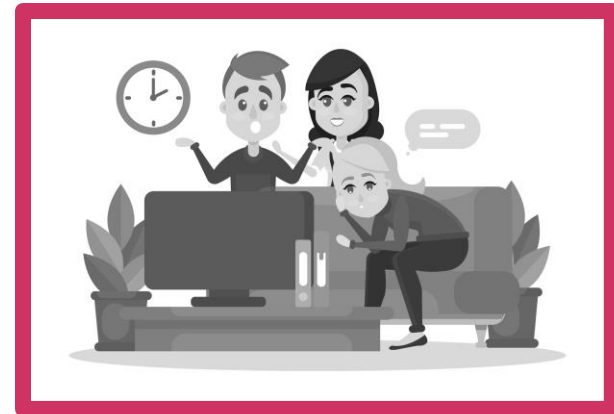

On April 2nd, the teachers in Oklahoma went on strike. A strike is when workers do not go to work. They have a rally.

Strikers hold signs at a rally. The signs say why they are mad.

This rally is at the Capitol Building. The Capitol is in Oklahoma City.

The rally is on the news. The teachers want everyone to know about the strike.

The teachers want more money.
They want to get paid more for teaching.

Teachers also want better schools for kids. The schools need more money.

The teachers want a new law in Oklahoma. The new law would get teachers and schools more money.

The lawmakers said they would give new teachers $5,000 more.

The teachers said no. $5,000 was not enough. They are on strike. Schools are closed in Oklahoma.

Copyright 2018 All Rights Reserved
Austin and Lily Solutions
www.austinlily.com