World War II
Anne Frank

By Janet Giel-Romo, Ed.D.

Anne Frank was a teenager.
She lived during World War II.

Anne's family lived in Germany.
Germany was a dangerous place
for Jewish people.

Nazi symbol

Amsterdam

Adolf Hitler lived in Germany. He was a Nazi leader. Hitler wanted to kill Jewish people.

Anne was Jewish. Jewish people in Germany were scared. Anne's family moved to Amsterdam.

Then, the Nazis invaded Amsterdam! The Nazis made Jewish people wear a yellow star on their clothes.

Then, Jewish people were sent away on trains. They were sent to concentration camps.

Anne Frank's family hid here. Today it is a museum.

Anne's family had to hide from the Nazis. They hid in a secret part of a building.

Anne's family hid for 2 years! Anne wrote in a diary. She wrote about her feelings.

Everett Historical / Shutterstock.com

One day the Nazis found their hiding place! Anne's family was sent to a concentration camp.

Anne, her mother, and Margot died at the concentration camp. Anne's father did not die.

Anton_Ivanov Shutterstock.com

Anne's father found her diary.
It is now a book. People read it to learn about World War ll.