The Acropolis is an ancient city.

The Acropolis is in Athens, Greece.

Acropolis means 'high city'.
The Acropolis is on a hill.

There is a wall around the Acropolis. The wall protected the ancient city from enemies.

There are ancient ruins in the Acropolis. Ruins are ancient buildings that need to be fixed.

People in Greece are fixing the ancient ruins. The ruins are being restored.

The Parthenon is an ancient ruin in the Acropolis. It was a temple for the Goddess Athena.

This ancient temple is also in the Acropolis. The columns are statues of women.

An ancient theater is in the Acropolis. Ancient Greeks loved to watch plays, concerts, and dancing.
